WELCOME... TO THE MOORLAND HOTEL

This beautifully renovated hotel is already capturing the hearts of its guests and visitors. Spectacularly situated opposite Haytor, The Moorland Hotel, is the hidden gem within Dartmoor National Park, offering panoramic views all the way to Torbay and across the majestic moorland and tor tops.

A breath-taking setting all year with everything you need for a perfect country escape. With our dedicated and friendly team on hand to assist and see to your every need, we have no doubt that you'll feel instantly relaxed as you settle into your scenic and peaceful surroundings.

RELAX . . . & ENJOY

Devon is renowned for its spacious countryside and its rural walks, at The Moorland Hotel, there is no better way to enjoy the outdoors. Whether you simply want to get away from the hustle and bustle for a relaxing break in pure tranquility or stay with us at the heart of all the outdoor and moorland action.

If it's a relaxing retreat your after then you've found the perfect place. Set within 11 acres of land The Moorland Hotel provides its guests with a real sense of exclusivity. Why not seclude yourself within our calming atmospheric lounge, cosy up on an afternoon taking in the wonderful views or let your imagination sink into the latest novel or paper by the roaring log fire. After The Moorland Hotel was where Agatha Christie wrote her first ever novel, 'The Mysterious Affair at Styles'.

If, on the other hand, you enjoy the great outdoors, then this is the place for you. The National Park is great for walking and with over 368 square miles of moorland, there is plenty to explore. Great for walking, mountain biking, climbing, horse-riding and many more activities.

Whatever your interest we have a lot to enjoy within this unspoilt and beautiful location, but don't just take our word for it come and see for yourselves.

DINE WITH US... IN OUR TINPICKLE & RHUM BRASSERIE

Found at the heart of the hotel the Tinpickle and Rhum is cosy, cheerful, warm and welcoming. Enjoy our rustic style, country café brasserie, furnished to the highest quality, and warmed by our open log fire for the perfect country retreat.

Serving real ales and a fabulous variety of traditional foods made with top quality, seasonal and local produce. Our quirky country menu serves those British favourites alongside gastropub specials and not forgetting everyone's favourite, Sunday lunch with all the trimmings.

CUISINE... DELICIOUS RANGE OF DISHES

Make your dining experience one to remember. Our excellent team of chefs take full advantage of our rural location, with all dishes made passionately in house, delivering menu's that are fresh, local and always seasonal. Whatever your tastes, the dinning experience within either of our two inviting restaurants, at The Moorland Hotel will prove a delight no matter what time of day.

Join us daily for hot or cold beverages, breakfast, lunch and dinner. Food is served seven days a week from 8am until 9pm within our café brasserie.

DINE WITH US... IN OUR CONSERVATORY RESTAURANT

Beautifully open planned and surprisingly spacious our conservatory restaurant is flooded with natural daylight and boasts breath-taking views stretching as far as Torbay. It is a perfect spot to relax for guests and visitors to embrace its calm atmosphere and absorb the gorgeous surroundings of the hotel.

The restaurant itself sits perfectly within its gardens featuring graceful décor and tasteful details, offering a tempting fine dining set menu with an assortment of freshly and locally sourced ingredients, with hidden dining surprises to heighten your dining experience, pushing your taste buds to new levels.

DIRECTIONS... GETTING YOU ALL HERE

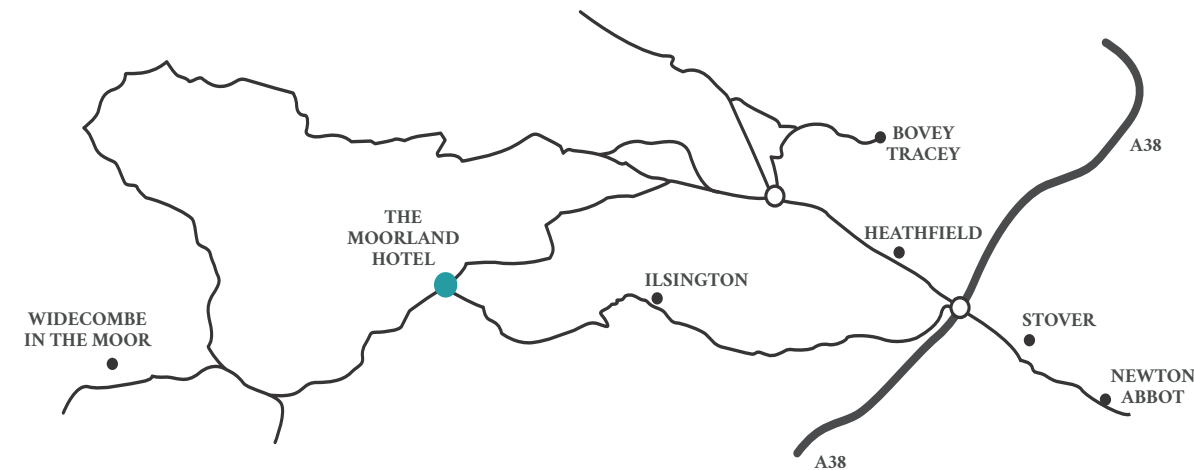

Moorland Hotel is approximately 15 minutes from the centre of Newton Abbot continuing along the A38, past Trago Mills and out towards Heathfield and Bovey Tracey. The hotel itself is situated directly opposite Haytor.

After Exeter the road divides, take the right hand fork in the direction of Plymouth and after about eleven miles take the exit indicating Newton Abbot, Bovey Tracey and Moretonhampsted. Take the fourth turning off the roundabout

(second turning if coming from Plymouth) towards Bovey Tracey and Heathfield Industrial Estate. Follow the road for approximately one mile where you shall meet a roundabout, taking the second exit onto A382, carry along this road for 4 miles you will reach a third and final roundabout, taking the first exit at this roundabout onto the B3387, 500 yards past the Dartmoor National Parke the road will split, taking the left turning and continuing along this road for 3 miles passing Ullacombe farm along the way. The hotel is then located on your left hand side directly opposite Haytor itself.

We recommend that you do not use satellite navigation systems after leaving the A38 as they tend to take you the most direct route and through very narrow lanes. The hotel is also on an unmarked road which can lead to some mistakes. Please try to trust our directions or call us on 01364 661407 should you find yourself lost.
